

2017 FALL NEWSLETTER

Hope all our members and families are well as Fall begins, we hope for safe travels as our students return to school. We congratulate our members who recently were promoted and retired. We welcome our new Probationary Firefighters and welcome those of Irish heritage to get involved and join our Society. This is our 3rd newsletter online and you can receive it by registering on our website, FDNYEmeraldSociety.org, you can pay your dues and keep up to date on our upcoming events. In addition you can follow us on twitter @FDNYEmerald, there we also post events and information of interest to the Irish American community. Retired members can contact Walter Dreyer at <mailto:cjoyhome@aol.com> to Pay your dues or obtain Wheel of Fortune tickets for $10 that supports our Scholarship. We also have an automatic dues deduction for active and retired members through Employee Self Service clicking on the Fraternal Organization Dues deduction link.

Below is a link to a list of tips for anyone taking the upcoming FDNY exam. From our friends at Sullivan & Galleshaw.

They spoke with an expert on the personality aspect of the test and put this short tutorial together and think it will be extremely beneficial to anyone taking the test.
